

New York State Association of Day Service Providers
SYMPOSIUM 2025 September 17, 18, 19th at the Saratoga Hilton, Saratoga Springs

Share Your Knowledge with your Colleagues

The New York State Association of Day Service Providers is planning the 2025 SYMPOSIUM.

This year's conference will be held September 17, 18 and 19th at The Saratoga Hilton in Saratoga Springs, New York. The goal of the Symposium is to share creative ideas, program techniques, and issues which relate to day services and the people we support. Your audience will be comprised of direct support professionals, clinicians, managers, people supported and families.

We are looking for presentations on various topics including volunteer and work opportunities, autism, community inclusion, services provided for people who require increased support, individualized planning, promoting individual choice, innovative programming, personal future planning, employee retention, employee burnout, transportation challenges and ideas, quality assurance/quality improvement strategies, community hab, self-directed services, staff development, staff development & leadership training and other best practices.

If you are interested in sharing your knowledge and expertise, please complete the attached application and email it to:
